RHCA meeting, Annual Fish Fry

Set for Tuesday, June 25

The Rose Hill Civic Association's annual fish fry and June meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 25 in the front yard of Dave & Linda Nichols' house at 6416 Rose Hill Drive. Serving will begin at 6 p.m. Business, if needed, will follow the meal. RHCA will provide the fish, ice tea and all the paper products as well as hot dogs for the kids. If you haven't tried our fish, you've got to taste it to believe it! And that's a good thing.

The fish fry is another reason to belong to RHCA. Come and meet your neighbors and enjoy a great meal. You need not be a member to attend the fish fry, but we would appreciate your support.

Residents are requested to provide their favorite side dishes and/or desserts. In past years, we have been blessed with an excellent menu with selections to satisfy everyone's appetite. The fish, deep fried as part of a famous breading recipe used by our chef, Blaise Pugh, will melt in your mouth. Blaise has cooked for us for several years and no one has gone home hungry. Grace will be said by our chaplain, Dave Nichols.

This is the last Rambler until September. RHCA will NOT meet in July and August. We will be participating in the National Night Out event to show support our local first responders on Tuesday, August 5. RHCA will provide hot dogs, drinks and paper products for the event, which will be held in the Nichols' front yard at 6416 Rose Hill Drive between 6 and 8 p.m. Residents are requested to bring a salad, side dish or dessert to fill out the menu. Everyone is invited. Come and meet representatives of the police, fire and rescue and sheriff's office. Show your support for those who keep us safe.

Remember, both the June 25 fish fry and August 5 National Night Out events will be held in the front yard of Dave and Linda Nichols' house at 6416 Rose Hill Drive. Bring your favorite side dish or dessert to share to each event.

Rose Hill Beauties

We're a month late in announcing the Rose Hill Beauties for 2013 due to the fact that there was no Rambler or RHCA meeting in May. The president's illness and the date for Memorial Day combined to force the cancellation of The Rambler and the meeting. Once again, the overwhelming winners of the Beauty awards are members of RHCA. And, NO, the judges don't know if the winners are members or not when they turn in the list and nominations. That info is researched later. The new signs and stickers have been ordered and will be delivered over the rest of the summer. Only members receive signs. The full list of 2013 Rose Hill Beauties is on page 5 and 6. If you think we missed someone, please let us know and we will double check. We encourage everyone to present their properties in such a way that it earns a spot on the 2014 list. Believe me, the signs are an incentive for potential owners. Please be aware that RHCA also is diligent in reporting properties where upkeep is neglected, there are ordinance violations and issues that despoil the beauty of our community. You can help by reporting any such properties near your house. It takes a while, but we usually are successful in cleaning up the messes!

Apple Tree Drive Parking

On June 4, the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors approved the installation of No Parking signs on the south side of Apple Tree Drive from Rose Hill Drive to Willowood Lane. The signs are either in place or soon will be installed. The action was in response to a request by RHCA in an effort to provide safe passage for vehicles and prevent a tragedy during morning arrival, afternoon dismissal or special events at Rose Hill Elementary School. Numerous residents complained about the fact that cars were being parked on both sides of the street during those times, making it difficult to drive through the area or enter or exit their driveways. Most important, the limits on visibility made it difficult to see a small child who had exited one of the vehicles. RHCA circulated a petition to the residences of the affected area and the overwhelming majority was in agreement with the installation of No Parking signs. Several years back, RHCA requested and the County installed No Parking signs on one side of May Boulevard across from the school for the same reasons. We also have advocated expansion of on-site parking in the school, suggesting additional spaces be provided under the power lines, just like the neighboring library. That could give both the school and the library additional overflow parking.

Other Parking Issues

Residents and guests are reminded that Rose Hill is part of a Residential Parking District. Therefore, only ONE small commercial vehicle per residence is allowed to park on private property. Violators risk expensive citations. Large trucks or vans are prohibited from parking in the community. If they are on one of our narrow community streets, passage of two cars is almost impossible. If they are on private property or in driveways, their presence detracts from the property of both the owner and the neighbors. Large commercial vehicles such as dump trucks, flatbed trucks, stake body trucks, trailers, large vans, wreckers, etc. should be parked on property zoned either commercial or industrial. Except for the shopping center, all the property in Rose Hill is zoned residential. Large commercial vehicles are classified as being at least eight (8) feet tall, eight.five (8.5) feet wide and 21 feet long. Call the non-emergency number at 703-691-2131 to report violators.

Likewise, zoning laws restrict the size of the portion of a lot that can be used for parking to a percentage of the width of the front lot. Generally, double-wide driveways are legal. Parking on the grass can result in a violation notice and potential fine if the parking is repeated. Additionally, residents of Rose Hill Drive are reminded that the strip of grass between the road and the sidewalk belongs to the County and parking there is prohibited. No parking on the grass signs are displayed at each end of Rose Hill Drive. Violation will result in a ticket.

RHCA is committed to making sure the traffic and zoning laws are enforced. We constantly complain to the police about speeders on Rose Hill Drive and other streets. We encourage radar enforcement on Rose Hill Drive.

Work on Franconia Road

Fairfax Water has notified the County and State that it intends to make modifications and connections to its 24-inch water line on Franconia Road at its intersection Bush Hill Drive. Work will occur between the hours of 9 p.m. and 7 a.m. and will include overnight lane closings. As part of noise variance for the project, the county has required the prohibition of trucks banging their tail gates and minimized backing up so the use of warning devices are not used. All work, removal of traffic cones, construction equipment and signage must be completed by 5 a.m. Monday through Friday. If you use Franconia Road in this area between 9 p.m. and 7 a.m., be prepared for delays. During the days, be aware there will be steel plates in the roadway. Traffic no doubt will be slowed, so use caution. We may see some increase in traffic on Rose Hill Drive, and as everyone knows, many drivers don't obey the speed limit of 25 miles per hour in our community. RHCA has requested additional speed limit signs on Rose Hill Drive.

Mark Your Calendars

It's a long time off, but time flies in the summer! RHCA and the Franconia Museum will be sponsoring a reenactment of Confederate John Singleton Mosby's capture of Union Colonel Daniel Dulany at the Rose Hill manor house exactly 150 years to the day after it happened. The date is Saturday, September 28. Re enactors portraying Mosby and his men will enter the house owned by Cliff and Barbara James at the end of May Boulevard where the original Rose Hill once stood on a bluff with a view all the way to the Potomac River. There, they will take into custody a Union re enactor playing Dulany, who was living at the house at the time. Dulany was the aide to the Union-appointed governor of the Restored State of Virginia, Francis Pierpont. Mosby had wanted to capture Pierpont in his headquarters at the Union Hotel (Gadsby's Tavern) in Alexandria. When he learned Pierpont was visiting President Abraham Lincoln at the White House, he turned toward Dulany at Rose Hill. One of Mosby's men on the raid was French Dulany, the colonel's son.

We have recollections of the raid written by Mosby and Ann Froebel, a friend of Dulany's who lived at nearby Clermont. That information will form the basis of a program explaining the raid by local Civil War historian and Mosby expert Don Hakenson. Excerpts from Froebel's diary will be read by Susan Hillier. Her husband, David, will portray Colonel Dulany. The Hilliers live at Edgemont, the birthplace of Mosby, in Central Virginia. Mosby will be played by Jimmy Fleming, a living historian who has performed as Mosby at numerous events. A re enactor playing French Dulany will relate conversations between himself and his father during the raid.

The raiding party and Dulany, all in uniform of the day, will ride on horseback up May Boulevard to Rose Hill Elementary where they will join Hakenson and Susan in a discussion of the event. The Franconia Museum will display some of its many items about the history of the area. The Rose Hill PTA will have food and drink for sale. Books on Mosby and Civil War incidents by Hakenson and other local authors will be on sale. Hakenson and others have produced a 90-minute video of Mosby's activities in Fairfax County that is a must for all local Civil War enthusiasts.

Since there will be heavy traffic and pedestrians in the area of the event during the middle of the day, either plan to attend or be away from home on September 28, 2013. Be advised that May Boulevard and Rose Hill Drive will both be closed for a short period to allow the mounted raiding party to pass.

Odds And Ends

Don't forget the volleyball matches with Dave and Linda Nichols beginning at 6 p.m. every Thursday at Lee District Park, weather permitting. Jump in the action for a fun workout, not to mention the fellowship. Also there are FREE concerts every Wednesday night at the Lee District Park amphitheater beginning at 7:30 p.m., also weather permitting. If you are interested in a vacation in Ocean City, I have a vacancy for a week starting August 18. The long-time guest for the week has surgery scheduled and won't be able to enjoy the sun and ocean this year. The ground floor condo is four blocks from the Ocean in a quiet residential neighborhood in North Ocean City. It includes two bedrooms, two baths, living room and kitchen and the complex has a pool. A special rate for RHCA members only. References available. Call or e-mail me at 703-971-4716 or sellcarl@aol.com. Finally, I underwent emergency open-heart to replace my aortic valve on April 30. Recovery is slow but sure most days. Thanks for all the prayers and good thoughts. They sure helped!

Expert Roof Repair/Replacement, Gutters too!

Residential & Commercial: Expert Repairs & Installation of All Types of Roofing at Fair Prices

SIX Common Misconceptions about Roofing and the Roofing Industry:

Misconception #1. You should wait as long as possible to re-roof your home.

No! Your roof takes a beating every day from sun, wind and rain. Your shingles become brittle and crack with age and have a tendency to blow off and fall at an alarming rate with age. This exposes the roof decking (the sub-structure that literally, "keeps you out of the rain") to moisture which slowly deteriorates and rots the wood beneath, leading to leaks and more extensive damage.

Further, the metal flashings around chimney areas and at adjoining exterior walls (or rooflines), the penetration collars (around plumbing and heat stacks) and all other vents become worn and prone to water infiltration.

Next time you're outside, take a close look at your roof (most people don't pay attention to it until there's a problem). How does it look? Is it rough and weathered? Are the shingles "curling" or cracking? Is one section very distinguishable from all other areas? Finally, are you proud of the way your roof helps "show" your home, or are you embarrassed by its appearance?

Remember: By the time you have waited "as long as possible," you have probably waited too long and will end up spending your hard earned money on interior and sub-structure repairs, as well as a much needed roof replacement.

THE ROSE HILL RAID

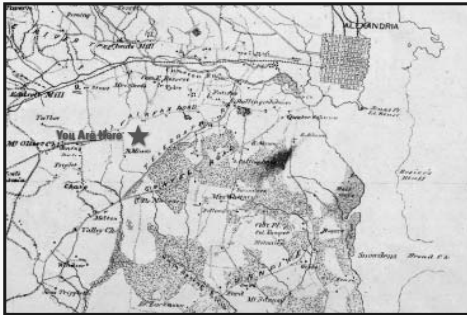

A Not-So-Tender Reunion

Rose Hill

On September 28, 1863, Confederate Maj. John S. Mosby raided the house that stood nearby on the bluff at the end of May Boulevard. The day before, Mosby and eight of his men rode from Fauquier County toward Alexandria, where Mosby planned to capture Francis H. Pierpont, the provisional governor of the Restored Government of Virginia.

Mosby expected to find Pierpont at the City Hotel, known today as Gadsby's Tavern, but was disappointed to learn that Pierpont had gone to Washington City. Mosby and his men burned a railroad bridge within sight of Forts Ellsworth and Lyon, then rode along Telegraph Road to the Rose Hill Plantation to surprise the governor's aide, Col. Daniel F. Dulany. One of Mosby's Rangers, French Dulany, was Col. Dulany's son.

Anne S. Frobels, a Rose Hill neighbor, wrote in her diary that a "party of Mosby's boys came very unexpectedly to Rose Hill, and took off Col. Dulany. One of them was his own son. ... This boy's first greeting to his father when "The Colonel sarcastically remarked to his son that he had an old pair of shoes he had better take, as he reckoned they were darned scarce in the Confederacy, whereupon the son holding up his leg which was encased in a fine pair of cavalry boots just captured from a sutler, asked the old man what he thought of that." — Maj. John S. Mosby, October 1, 1863

he rushed into the room where his father was in bed [was] ... 'How do Pa—I'm very glad to see you,' and the father's answer sitting up in bed, with proper dignity, 'Well sir, I'm d-sorry to see you.' But they took him down to Richmond nevertheless."

Dulany was imprisoned, exchanged, and survived the war. His son, however, was mortally wounded in 1864. The house burned in 1895.
