Officer Jim Reid of Franconia Will Visit RHCA on Tuesday

Officer Jim Reid of the Franconia police station will be our guest at the Tuesday, March 27 meeting at the John Marshall Library. The meeting begins at 7 p.m. Officer Reid will offer tips to thwart burglaries and bring us up to date on other issues in the Franconia area. We have a safe community and need everyone's help to keep it that way!

Over the last few years, the police budget has been cut by the County, particularly in the area of patrol officers. This is a big problem for the Franconia station, which has seen a huge increase in population to serve due to the new development in Lorton. Unfortunately, there hasn't been an increase in patrol officers to meet the added needs. Compounding the situation is the fact that the County has delayed plans for a new South County station, putting more pressure on Franconia.

RHCA has lobbied for additional patrol officers and the restoration of overtime so the added needs can be met. This year's budget includes restoration of some of the overtime cuts, but the police budget remains short of what it had three years ago. It is a situation that must be corrected. Please attend this important meeting so we can send a message that Rose Hill continues to support added police presence in our community. We have invited a representative of Supervisor McKay's office to attend and witness our support for the police.

One area that could be a source of funding is the fact that the police budget includes $9 million in support for the schools for such items as School Resource Officers and crossing guards. I have supported the position that at least a portion of the SRO budget should be paid by the schools with the money in the police budget being reallocated for more patrol officers. Crossing guards help both traffic and children on their way to school, so it appears that is a legitimate police function.

It should be noted that the schools receive 53 per cent of the total County budget, yet only one-third of residents have a child in school. In my opinion, the pendulum has shifted too far in favor of the schools at the expense of other County functions such as the police. No one wants to see cuts in the classroom, but there are many areas that should be looked at more closely. Seems to me the schools could find room in a Billion Dollar budget to help pay for the SROs.

Also on the agenda is our annual election of officers as prescribed by the RHCA bylaws. We also will be discussing how to serve the new homeowners in Rose Hill Reserve, even though they will eventually have their own Homeowners Association. Do we want to deliver the Rambler to the new homes? Should they be part of our Neighborhood Watch? They are going to need help dealing with County rules and regulations. And, we need to offer friendship for our new neighbors, even though we didn't like the idea of the development.

Since we didn't meet in February, look for Linda Nichols to offer an outstanding menu for this meeting. If for no other reason, you need to join us for the goodies!

Final Membership Reminder

With this issue, we end our membership drive for 2012. As of this writing, we are behind our membership total from 2011. We need your membership and donations to make sure RHCA can continue to publish the Rambler, support the Rose Hill Beauty program, recognize our veterans, maintain the landscaping at the entrance sign, pay for our post office box and contribute to worthy local causes such as Koinonia, the Edison all-night graduation party and the annual holiday dinner and breakfast for our police. Unlike many newer communities where homeowner association fees are mandated, Rose Hill has a voluntary civic association that depends on your contributions. If your name is not included on the list of RHCA members on page 4, please send your check, along with the form, to RHCA at P.O. Box 10891, Franconia, VA 22310. Better yet, bring it to the March 27 meeting at the Library.

Reprise Request

We weren't exactly overwhelmed with last month's call for volunteers to represent the community on two important citizen committees in Lee District. Recommendations are made by these groups to our supervisor and police captain, so it is extremely important that we be represented. Civic organizations are as close to the grass roots as government gets, so we need to make sure our voice is heard. Unless RHCA has already taken a position on an issue, items should be brought back to a meeting for community discussion and guidance. The Lee District Association of Civic Associations is an organization made up of community representatives throughout Lee District. Supervisor Jeff McKay and his staff attend the monthly meetings, which are held at 7:30 p.m. the fourth Wednesday of each month at the Government Center, 6121 Franconia Road. Also, there usually is a presentation by representatives of county agencies. LADACO also holds an annual holiday banquet, for which RHCA pays the fee for its representative and his or her guest. The Citizen's Advisory Council meets monthly with Captain Sean Bennett and his staff at the Franconia police station. The meetings are held at 6:30 p.m. the third Wednesday of each month, also at the Government Center. The CAC also provides dinner Christmas Eve and breakfast Christmas morning for those officers who have to work when most restaurants are closed. RHCA contributes to the event each year. Please consider representing your community on these two important committees. Rose Hill has a reputation as having a very active civic association and we need help to maintain our ability to influence the County on issues that affect our community. Frankly, Linda, Carolyn and I could use a few more shoulders at the wheel.

And, closer to home, we still need someone to coordinate our Neighborhood Watch program. Rather than send out patrols, we have a large network of people who keep their eyes and ears on activities on their block. Each "Watcher" gets instructions as to what to look out for, including suspicious visitors and/or vehicles, as well as how to report such things as burned out streetlights, accumulation of trash, overcrowding, noise violations, illegal vehicles, etc. Complaints can be made in the name of RHCA, so you don't have to give your name or address. The coordinator maintains the list, keeps up with information from the police and passes it on to the neighborhood watchers. In addition to a coordinator, we always are looking for a few more watchers! We also try to keep an eye out for our senior neighbors, making sure they get help when they need it.

Beauties and Uglies

Because everything is blooming early, the judges are getting ready to look for those properties that merit the coveted Rose Hill Beauty signs. Remember, only RHCA members will receive the signs. All winners will be listed in a future issue of the Rambler and on our web site, myrosehill.com. At the same time they are looking for beauties, the judges will note any properties that detract from the overall ambiance of the community. They will note properties with accumulated trash, vehicles that are wrecked, disabled or do not have proper tags and/or inspections, parking on the grass, illegal occupancy, commercial use of property, etc. Violators will be reported to the appropriate county agencies. Residents are reminded that Rose Hill is part of a residential parking district that limits the size and type of vehicles that can be parked on our streets. Residents who see potential violations are encouraged to contact either RHCA or the appropriate county agency. If you have a question, give us a call.

Parking on Apple Tree Drive

The issue of school visitors parking on Apple Tree Drive has heated up again after a recent near miss involving a driver and a mother and child exiting a car parked on the street during a school event. The incident led to an investigation by county and school officials. One of the suggested remedies is to limit parking on Apple Tree, something RHCA has long advocated, at least on one side. Previously, we have been unsuccessful because VDOT, which controls the roads, didn't see the need. Since then, the County code has been changed allowing the Board of Supervisors to make the decision. There are many hurdles to jump through, including a petition and a public hearing. We will discuss the issue at the April meeting and decide if we wish to proceed. Although this issue directly affects the residents in the 4700 and 4800 block of Apple Tree and the school visitors who park there, it has safety implications for the entire community. It should be noted that some years back RHCA was successful in obtaining No Parking signs on one side of May Boulevard for the same reasons we have asked for the prohibition on Apple Tree.

More Rose Hill History

The article on page 9 is from the June 1973 edition of the Rambler and was provided to us by Dave West, a former president of RHCA who now lives in Hayfield. Dave's grandfather owned the Rose Hill manor house and his father grew up there. The picture above shows three of Dave's relatives standing at the sundial in the front of the house in 1947. The front faced Telegraph Road. Go to myrosehill.com, click on photo gallery for more pictures of the magnificent Rose Hill house. Unfortunately, the house was destroyed in 1966 to make way for an addition to our subdivision. By the way, Cliff and Barbara James now live at 6412 May Boulevard and have given us permission to use their property as part of a recreation of Mosby's Civil War raid in September of 1863.

Please see the article on page 9 of this edition of the Rambler.

ROSE HILL ELEMENTARY PRESENTS

“ALADDIN AND HIS WONDERFUL MAGICAL LAMP”

Hop on a flying carpet to visit the exciting city of Shammar in Old Arabia! Meet the adventurous Aladdin and his mischievous monkey, Alakazam. Aladdin will encounter the magician, Jammal, and his wicked sister, Halima, who need Aladdin for their evil plan involving a magic lamp with a strange genie inside. And, of course, watch as Aladdin meets his love, Princess Jasmine, and has to save her from the evil magician. You'll meet not one, but three genies, the whining Ali “Bubba” and his umbrella, the fire-breathing dragon, and the haughty Sultan's wife. All are joined by many other fun characters such as snakes, lizards, birds, monkeys, and spirits in this musical fantasy that will delight audiences of all ages.

Performances will be held at Hayfield Secondary School (7630 Telegraph Rd, Alexandria) on Friday, April 13th at 7pm, Saturday, April 14th at 12pm and 7pm. Tickets will be available at the door ($5 for adults, $3 for children). Concessions will be available.

"RAMBLER RECOLLECTIONS" JUNE 1973 ISSUE

ROSE HILL FARM HISTORY

Some of the history of the Rose Hill Farm has been revealed recently by Dave West of 4800 Apple Tree Drive, whose grandfather was one of the previous owners of the farm. He had purchased the entire 400-acre farm around 1908 for approximately $10,000. At that time, it already had the name of "The Rose Hill Farm" because of its development by the prior owner. The entrance to the farm was from Telegraph Road, where Rose Hill Drive intersects, as we know it today. The dirt road ran parallel to an apple orchard and when it reached the area of the Apple Tree Drive of today, it made a 90° turn to the left and proceeded to the rear of the farm house, which was located approximately where the home of Al Million, at 6412 May Boulevard, is now located. At that time, there was no entrance road from Franconia Road and in later years approximately 100 acres in the area of the Rose Hill Shopping Center was purchased in order to give access to this road.

The farm house faced north-south, with the rear of the house to the south. The hallway from the rear door ran through the entire middle of the house to the front door. Many people thought the rear of the house was the front of it because both sides were almost identical and the road ended in a circle at the back door. The house was built on the top of a hill which over-looked Telegraph Road, and from the front porch you could see distant points such as Indian Head, Maryland.

The front of the house was approximately 50 yards from the edge of the hill and there was a large sundial about half-way between those points. The owner prior to Dave's grandfather had developed a series of three terraces on the hillside approximately eight feet wide each and almost 250 yards long. Between each terrace was a stretch of the gradually sloping hillside, and when the terraces were planted full of roses, they covered the areas between the terraces. Eventually the entire top of the hillside was covered with roses and since they were visible to passers-by below on Telegraph Road, the area was dubbed "Rose Hill Farm." The farm had three more owners before it was sold to a firm which developed it as the Rose Hill Farm Subdivision we live in today.

BOTH SIDES TOUR VIII
Civil War Sesquicentennial Event
Lee's Maryland Campaign of 150 Years Ago

Visit the site of Stonewall Jackson's bombardment that aided in the fall of Harpers Ferry. See a current residence that was constructed from the bricks of the destroyed United States Arsenal two years after the war. Spend the afternoon at Sharpsburg/ Antietam, where Union and Confederate forces clashed on the bloodiest day in U.S. military history. View all stages of the battle starting with the initial Union charge, the carnage at Bloody Lane, the standoff at Burnside Bridge and the arrival of troops on the right flank that saved the Confederates from total defeat after the Union breakthrough.

Saturday, April 28, 2012
Sponsored by the Franconia Museum

Start the day at 8 a.m. with coffee, and donuts at the Franconia Museum, 6121 Franconia Road. Board a comfortable rest-room equipped motor coach for the trip to a local historic site and then head west to Harpers Ferry to visit Schoolhouse Ridge and historic Alta Vista, now the site of the restored house and a working dairy farm. Enjoy lunch at Ryan's Buffet in Martinsburg, West Virginia, and then head for Sharpsburg/ Antietam in Maryland. Hear vignettes about the war along the way.

SPECIAL ADDED ATTRACTION

After lunch, we'll stop at a little-known site in Williamsport, Maryland, where Jackson crossed the Potomac River en route to Harpers Ferry, then Lee crossed both on his way to Gettysburg and his retreat back to Virginia the following year. The site is along the C&O Canal and only a very short walk from the bus!

COST: $100.00 Each. Includes Bus Ride, Buffet Lunch (including gratuity) and a Snack Card to spend on the way home, as well as all entrance fees.

At Alta Vista, you'll meet a modern-day family that helps produce the milk you buy at the store. Learn how the milk gets from the cows to your table. Hear about the original building and current restoration of the house.
